2. [REDACTED] talked with [REDACTED] of the [REDACTED] Desk. This office has not sent any students for [REDACTED] since a time about two years ago when a part-time class was discontinued because the members were so busy on their desks that their attendance was very irregular and they were not preparing their lessons before coming to class. It was explained to the Branch Chief that a student in a part-time class needs six hours in class, plus time in the language laboratory, plus travel time. The Branch Chief decided that he could not spare any of his personnel this much of the time in order to learn the language.

them one session every other week to explain the grammar. [REDACTED] will act as the native speaker with [REDACTED] advice. The students seem very eager and the class will start on Friday, 29 October.

3. Enrollment in Romance Language Courses, which has been relatively low the last few months, will pick up next week. We have full-time basic programs beginning in Italian, Portuguese and Spanish as well as both full- and part-time programs in French.
